

Synopsis

Basic Human Needs is a coming of age comedy that follows the lives of a young couple in Regina whose debilitating lack of ambition, and resistance to growing up, is put to the test when adulthood is abruptly thrust upon them in the form of a missing condom, a pregnancy test, and a few invaluable life lessons they're likely to forget.

Logline

A young couple's plan to escape their small hometown is stalled when a lost condom forces them to reexamine their relationship.