

Let's talk about it

Directed by Deepa Mehta- Written and Produced by Noemi Weis- Cinematographer Noryar Kasper, Composer Matthew Davis , Editor Wiebke VonCarolsfeld

Once the innocent and forgotten victims of domestic violence, children break the silence and secrecy of family abuse for the first time in Let's Talk About It, a new documentary directed by Deepa Mehta.

A compelling and purposeful call to action, the one-hour documentary puts a voice and a face to the global epidemic that is breeding a new generation of abusers.

Fusing the structured first-person story-telling techniques of the documentary with the revealing and spontaneous tell-it-like-it-is conversations between parent and child, in a chilling landscape with the cautionary tales of immigrant women who share their stories of domestic violence and the resulting negative impact and influence on their children from their exposure to violence in the home.

"Children are our greatest teachers and I hope this film helps to fuel meaningful action and commitment to stop the cycle of family abuse and give voice to every child and parent living in the unspoken despair of an abusive home." Deepa Mehta

"The documentary is a call to action "

Let's Talk About It - Gloria Suhasini - Indiaglitz

"This film encourages dialogue and discussion "

Let's Talk About It - National Film Board of Canada

"Deepa Mehta produces a searing documentary "

Let's Talk About It - Gayle MacDonald - Globe & Mail

"An eye opening documentary from acclaimed filmmaker Deepa Mehta"

Let's Talk About It - Bill Brioux - Toronto Sun

"A compelling and purposeful call to action - Deepa Mehta has created a chilling landscape"

"

Let's Talk About It - Festival de Films

AWARDS:

Best documentary of the year from the Canadian Broadcast Association

Gold Jury Award- Yorkton Film Festival