TAMMY GILLIS IN A FILM BY JOHN BARNARD

MENORCA

2016 / DRAMA / 81 MINUTES / 4K / CANADA

A photograph of two women sitting on a green lawn. They are both wearing dark sunglasses and are shirtless. In front of them is a white plastic container filled with food, and two brown glass beer bottles are on the grass. The background shows a yellow house with white trim. The text is overlaid in the upper right corner.

A hedonistic soccer mom embarks on a strange journey of self discovery

SYNOPSIS:

CLAIRE, A SUBURBAN MOTHER INDULGING IN SOME GOOD-NATURED HEDONISTIC DEBAUCHERY, RECEIVES WORD FROM HER CHILD THAT HE IS ABANDONING HER AS HIS MOTHER.

TO WIN BACK HIS AFFECTION, SHE DECIDES TO CARRY A SMALL ROCK HALF WAY AROUND THE WORLD TO ITS PLACE OF ORIGIN ON A MEDITERRANEAN ISLAND.

ALONG THE WAY, SHE GOES TO WORK IN A STRANGE STRIP CLUB ON THE EDGE OF CIVILIZATION WHERE EXOTIC DANCERS PERFORM IN AN OTHERWORLDLY SPACE FOR ABANDONED SOULS JUST LIKE HER.
