How to Host a Screening

Step 1: Build your screening team

Get a few people to work on the screening together. If you are not part of a large organization, consider contacting local groups to help sponsor and promote the event.

- Local peace organizations
- Local veterans groups
- Universities and colleges – try Peace Studies, Canadian History, and Political Science departments first. Also, student organizations.
- Community or high school groups interested in peace and/or recruitment issues

Step 2: Choose a venue

Consider a movie cinema, theatre, community centre, church hall, cafe, school gym, or even a library. Make sure your venue has no windows or curtains to make it very dark.

Look for a venue that has the following (alternatively, you may have to rent or borrow this equipment):

- DVD or BluRay player
- projector
- screen (10' wide or more works best or a large white wall)
- sound system

Step 3: pick a date and time

The film is 64 minutes long. With set up and a half hour discussion afterwards, you'll need a venue for 2-3 hours.

Step 4: Purchase a license

Purchase the appropriate license for your screening through our website at www.peacehasnoborders.com We'll send you a disk via regular mail and post the screening on our website.

Step 5: Promote your event!

- Download the Peace Has No Borders Press Kit at ----- for posters, images, and other marketing materials.
  - Post your event to online community events sites and send out email invites.
  - Create an event page on social media
  - Call the local radio with news of your screening
  - Contact the local and community newspapers
  - Put up a few posters (we find a few well placed posters work better than plastering the town with unnecessary paper)
  - Contact local organizations and ask them to promote the screening through their networks.
  - Share information about the even with local governments, schools and universities

Timeline of Tips for a Successful Community Screening

8-12 weeks in advance

- Write down a list of possible venues and contact each of them to check rates and availability. It wastes valuable time to wait for one to respond before checking the next one, so contact them all at once.
- Contact local organizations to partner with you to promote or sponsor the screening.
- If you don't already have one, start compiling a contact list of people/organizations to invite.

6-8 weeks in advance

- Book your venue
- Order the movie license and dvd/blurray
- Consider starting a facebook event or using an online ticketing application such as Eventbrite (no cost for free screenings)

5 weeks in advance

- Post your event to online community events sites
- Email community groups and university faculty who may be interested
- Email friends, family, and any email lists you may have

3-4 weeks in advance

- Call the local radio with news of your screening
- Email the local and community newspapers. You can use the free template press release from our website if you like.
- Test the disk to make sure it works
- Print a few posters and put them up in strategic locations (restaurants, farmers markets, community centres, universities, etc)

2 weeks in advance

Call to follow up with the local newspaper and radio stations

1 week in advance

- Send a reminder to your email lists and people who signed up for your event online
