

Libera Nos

Short:

A story about the practice of exorcism and people's issues of everyday life. The contrasts between ancient traditions and modern habits, between sacred and profane, meet in this documentary and both disturbing and hilarious at the same time.

Long:

Every year, in Italy, in Europe and in the world, a higher and higher number of people affirms to feel possessed by Satan. The Catholic Church responds to this emergency training more and more exorcist priests. The veteran Father Cataldo is one of them. The contrasts between ancient traditions and modern habits, between sacred and profane, meet in this astonishing documentary and reveal themselves disturbing and hilarious at the same time.

Under 150:

A story about the practice of exorcism and people's issues of everyday life and explores the contrasts between ancient traditions and modern habits.