How to Host a Screening

Step 1: Build your screening team

Get a few people to work on the screening together. If you are not part of a large organization, consider contacting local groups to help sponsor and promote the event.

- Secular groups, freethought event organizers,
- universities (religious studies, political science)
- local businesses, restaurants, etc

Step 2: Choose a venue

Consider a movie cinema, theatre, community centre, church hall, cafe, school gym, or even a library. Make sure your venue has no windows or curtains to make it very dark. Look for a venue that has the following (alternatively, you may have to rent or borrow this equipment):

- DVD or BluRay player
- projector
- screen (10' wide or more works best or a large white wall)
- sound system

Step 3: pick a date and time

The feature length movie is 86 minutes long. With set up and a half hour discussion afterwards, you'll need a venue for 2-3 hours.

Step 4: Purchase a license

Purchase the appropriate license for your screening by emailing: info@indiecanent.com

We'll send you a disk via regular mail and post the screening on our website.

Step 5: Promote your event!

- Download the Losing Our Religion Press Kit at <http://www.Losingourreligion.ca/press-kit> for posters, images, and other marketing materials.
- Post your event to any online community events boards and send out email invites.
- Call the local radio with news of your screening
- Contact the local newspaper
- Put up a few posters (we find a few well placed posters work better than plastering the town with unnecessary paper)
- Contact local organizations and ask them to promote the screening through their networks.
- local governments
- schools and universities
- really start the discussion - invite religious groups and churches

Timeline of Tips for a Successful Community Screening

8-12 weeks in advance

- Write down a list of possible venues and contact each of them to check rates and availability. It wastes valuable time to wait for one to respond before checking the next one, so contact them all at once.
- Contact local organizations to partner with you to promote or sponsor the screening.
- If you don't already have one, start compiling a contact list of people/organizations to invite.

6-8 weeks in advance

- Book the venue
- Order the movie license/dvd
- Consider starting a facebook event or using an online ticketing application such as eventbrite (free for free screenings)

5 weeks in advance

- Post your event to any online community events boards
- Email community groups and university faculties who may be interested
- Email friends, family, and any email lists you may have

3-4 weeks in advance

- Call the local radio with news of your screening
- Email the local newspaper. You can use the free template press release from our website if you like.
- Test the disk to make sure it works
- Print a few posters and put them up in strategic locations (restaurants, farmers markets, community centres, universities, etc)

2 weeks in advance

- Call to follow up with the local newspaper and radio stations
- Jog our promotions team to help email your media contacts, and promote on social media

1 week in advance

- Send a reminder to your email lists and people who signed up for your event online
- Make sure you have enough people to set up, staff the door and run the concession if necessary.
