LONG SYNOPSIS

Kayla Stanton stars as Amber Waltz, a gifted pianist with a disturbing past who retreats to an isolated country house with hopes of completing her latest symphony. There she meets Jim (Michael Mitton), a handyman she hires who takes an unusual interest in helping her look after the house.

As her work progresses, Amber starts to hear strange noises – humming and whispers beckoning her – leading her to believe the house is haunted. A ghostly figure appears at her piano and Amber decides to dig deeper into the history of the house and its previous occupants.

When notes appear to write themselves on the pages of her music sheets, Amber finds herself surrounded by the dark mysteries of the house. She uncovers a deadly secret and begins her descent-- the unraveling of her own sanity.

SHORT SYNOPSIS

After relocating to a rural farmhouse, renowned pianist Amber Waltz discovers that her symphony is writing itself and this piece could be her last.

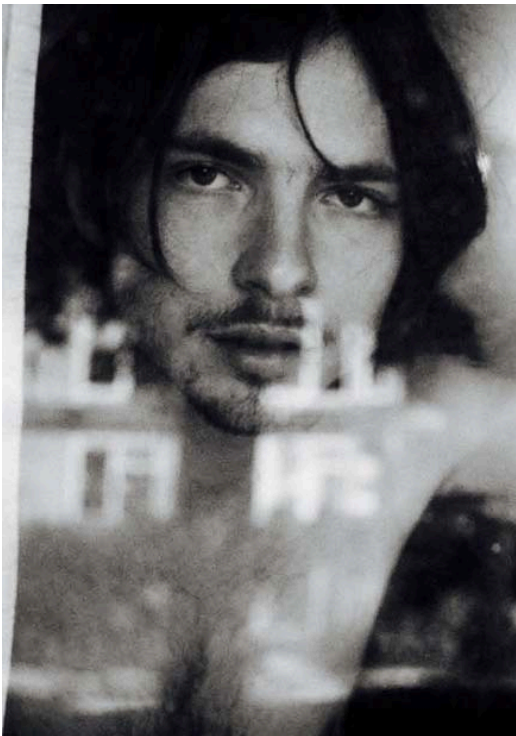

CAST

AMBER

Kayla Stanton

A professional actor and voiceover artist from Sydney, Australia, with an array of film, TV and theatre credits, Kayla has worked in the US, Canadian and Australian markets. Kayla is also an alumni of the Screen Actors Studio and Western Sydney University with a sub major in performance. Most recently in Vancouver, she was cast in the TV series “Lucifer” and a recurring role on the hit show “Supernatural”.

JIM

Michael Mitton

An up and coming Vancouver actor with a list of TV series credits that include “Psych”, “The Magicians” and “Legends of Tomorrow”, Michael Mitton has also been featured in Academy Award winning director Bong Joon-Ho’s Netflix Original, Okaj, as well as starring in the feature films “myPhone” and “Flu”. With a degree in cinema from San Francisco State, Michael is a talented writer and producer working on his directorial debut.

PRODUCTION TEAM

DIRECTOR/WRITER/PRODUCER

Micheal Bafaro

A veteran of the Canadian indie scene, Micheal Bafaro has been directing, writing and producing movies for more than two decades. With a lifelong passion for films that began when his father insisted on taking him to see the re-release of "Lawrence of Arabia", Micheal lives and breathes to tell stories. Trained in New York, he has stayed true to his independent roots by pursuing projects that he believes are important and need to be made. His award-winning film "The Barber", starring Malcolm McDowell sparked a streak of supernatural horror films that culminated in his 2020 woman in peril film, "Amber's Descent". Based in Vancouver, BC, Micheal is a founder of Absolute-Independence and Supersonic Pictures.

PRODUCER/EXECUTIVE PRODUCER

Laurie McLay

Laurie McLay has been working in the film and television industry since 1988 on a multitude of TV series, feature films, movies of the week, music videos, short films, animation and commercials for the likes of Viacom, MTV, Showtime and HBO. A seasoned producer and storyteller, she is focused on developing and producing independent films and high concept TV series projects under her company name, Sistar Films.

PRODUCER

Don Knodel

A graduate from the University of British Columbia with a BA in Film & Television, Don has always loved to entertain. He has worked professionally in the motion picture industry for over 30 years as a producer, actor, director, production manager, assistant director, location manager and every other position except catering on more than 400 productions from big budget Hollywood shows to independent films. Don is a founder of Absolute-Independence and Iceberg Pictures.
