

Logline

Marta returns home to a summer like all other summers yet a summer different from all the previous ones.

Synopsis

Marta's life in Madrid balances between an academic career and her relationship with Leo. During summer vacations back home she meets again her old flame to add more confusion in her emotional world.
In a lazy summery mood, a film about lust, love and decisions to be made (or not).