

Logline

In a traffic accident between a driver and a cyclist, an unexpected bond is created between the two families involved.

Synopsis

The cyclist Joana is in an odd accident, where she is carried on the hood of a car for a block. Joana leaves unharmed and decides to hide this incident from her partner Cecilia. When a strange video of the accident emerges, Joana's omission is exposed. She starts little by little to get involved in the lives of the family who ran her over.