

Haunt Season Tagline

Sacrifice is the reason for the season

Haunt Season Logline

A costumed killer picks off cast members of a suburban Halloween haunt attraction bringing their fake injuries into gory reality.

Haunt Season Long Synopsis - 83 words

In the lead-up to Halloween, a young woman joins the cast of a fairground haunted house, but gets more than she bargained for when her fellow actors start mysteriously vanishing, one by one. She soon discovers that a masked killer is responsible for these disappearances, murdering his victims in ways that mimic the gruesome deaths of their haunt characters. On Halloween night, the brutality is taken to another level as the killer unleashes a whirlwind of violence on all who dare to enter.

Haunt Season Long Synopsis - 152 words

Recent theater school alum Matilda is so desperate for any kind of acting job that she takes a position in a Halloween haunt attraction as a scalped woman. As she's introduced to the wide variety of weird and wonderful characters that populate the haunt world, a costumed killer picks off cast members one by one. Every new kill is modeled after the fake injuries that the actors wear for the haunted house--someone dressed as a morgue cadaver has their heart torn out, a decapitated football player has his head chopped off--turning their twisted Halloween fictions into gory reality. On Halloween night, the killer finally reveals themselves and unleashes a whirlwind of violence on anyone visiting the haunt, cast members and customers alike, bringing the terrifying sacrificial origins of All Hallows Eve into the modern-day. Matilda and her coven of spooky new friends must band together if they hope to survive the night.