

PINK IS IN: THE MOVIE

Logline

Pink Is In: The Movie dives inside the chaotic walls of Chatsworth Hamilton Women's Prison, where incompetent leadership, power-hungry inmates, and constant crisis collide. It's time for another lockdown!

Long Synopsis

Pink Is In: The Movie follows the outrageous antics of the unruly prisoners and wildly unqualified staff at the barely functioning Chatsworth Hamilton Women's Prison, a facility perpetually teetering on the brink of disaster.

At the top is CEO Pip Barnett, a man who has proudly gone five months without an original thought. Though tasked with running the prison, Pip is utterly incapable, leaving the real work to his long-suffering, perpetually stressed Warden, Morgan Dungworth, who spends her days putting out the fires Pip keeps lighting.

The true power inside the prison belongs to Prisoner 23642 — Nikki "Top Dog" Picano. Feared, respected, and always one step ahead, Nikki unofficially runs the place, able to smuggle in anything from the outside — no matter how illegal or ridiculous — for a price.

Rounding out the inmate population are unforgettable characters like Granny BJ, a former actress no one has ever heard of, and Ruby LaRue, the prison's fabulous resident Drag Queen.

With tensions high, authority constantly undermined, and chaos around every corner, one thing is inevitable:

Time for another lockdown!
