

THE KILLER GOLDFISH

Synopsis

Logline

A female paranormal investigator is caught up in a revenge case involving human history as she investigates a serial murder by a goldfish.

Short Synopsis

In 202X, Japan is plagued by mysterious murders involving goldfish-shaped bullets and vanishing bodies. Erika Tamaki, an investigator from the Paranormal Incident Special Countermeasures Section, leads the inquiry with detectives Denzou Yamanaka and Yukine Tachibana. After being killed in a confrontation, Erika is reincarnated into a new body. The investigation uncovers a pattern of psychic phenomena and a group of powerful high school students. The team gradually unravels the truth: the crimes are an act of revenge by psychics with awakened Neanderthal genes against Homo sapiens. Through multiple deaths and reincarnations, Erika eventually confronts the psychic group in a final showdown.
