

In Canada, Mojtaba, an Iranian mortician meets Jana, a defiant protest singer in hiding. As their bond grows, secrets emerge — and he's drawn into a chilling act that challenges everything he thought he knew.

Inspired by real events, Mortician exposes the reach of the Iranian regime beyond its borders. Brought to life through one-man cinema, this story demanded to be told - urgently and without compromise.