

Deaf Lovers

Logline

Two exiles from opposite sides of a brutal war find love in Istanbul, struggling to hear one another over the deafening echoes of a conflict that has already shaped their future.

Synopsis

2022. A war is ongoing. Ukrainian Sonya and Russian Danya meet in Istanbul. They face the same problems: they need money for food, a place to live, and a job. They share a desire to have fun, dance, drink, and have sex. But the main questions remain: how to deal with the past, rebuild their lives, and create a future together... while standing on opposite sides of the defining event of their time — the war. So what are they left with?
